again invite young scientists, university professors, graduate students, master candidates, students from Russia and other countries to take part in the annual International Youth Scientific and Practical Conference "Comparative Law in the Asia-Pacific Regions-XIII", which will be held on April 15, 2022

The aim of the conference is to enhance international legal cooperation between countries, scientific communities and young people of Russia, countries of the Asia-Pacific Region (APR), and other countries.

Purposes:

- establishing and developing of business contacts with other scientists, universities, research organizations, centers for comparative law research;
- promote cooperation of Russia and other countries of the APR, other countries in the judicial and law, human rights enforcements;
- the evolution of comparative studies towards the development of didactics, the quality of training of future lawyers in the APR countries;
- Development of the concept and ideas of legal education of the Asian region's population.

Russia is the biggest Eurasian country. Geographically, most of its territory is a part of Asia, which has greatly determined the prospects for the development of the entire region. The success of political, trade and economic, cultural interaction between the Russian Federation and the countries of the Asia-Pacific region is largely predetermined by how deeply we understand the peculiarities of legislation, the legal and common culture of neighboring states and appreciate all the differences. Due to this fact, comparative studies in various fields of knowledge, including the rights, are becoming especially relevant. For their realization, the powerful scientific potential of universities and research institutions are needed.

The organizing committee is traditionally focusing on the youth audience of the conference. Dear young scientists and law-enforcers, graduate students, master candidates and students! In the present or in the near future you will take a full responsibility not only for the development of your own country, but also for strengthening the friendship and cooperation in the Asia-Pacific region, and in the world. The lawyers with knowledges of oriental languages, possessing the technique of special translation, familiar with the legislation of Russia and other APR countries in comparative legal aspect will become in-demand. Even now, in your professional qualifications, you can focus on Asia. And this direction can give high guarantees of a successful employment and a brilliant career to the future and the current young lawyers!

International scientific-practical conference of young scientists, post-graduates, master candidates and students "Comparative law in the Asian-Pacific Region-XIII" which has been held by us for the 13th time generates a great interest both in Russia and in other leading countries in the Asian-Pacific Region such as China, Japan, Mongolia, South Korea, India as well as the CIS countries. The universities, research centers of Europe and other countries actively cooperate with us in the given direction.

The conference traditionally works with five sections:

Section Nr.1. "Constitutional legal and administrative legal problems of Comparative Law in the countries of APR".

Section Nr.2. "International law and international relations".

Section Nr.3. "Civil legal problems of Comparative Law in the countries of APR".

Section Nr.4. "Criminal legal and criminological problems of Comparative Law in the countries of APR".

Section Nr.5. "Criminal procedures and criminalistics problems of Comparative Law. Law enforcement authorities in the countries of APR".

There will be an online round table on April 14, 2022, as a part of the youth scientific forum on the topic: "Anti-criminal education in world practice and the participation of law schools, students in its implementation".

You can find out about the correct time and place in the program of the youth conference, which will be sent at least 3 days before the start of the event.

The recommended subject can be corrected and expanded by a researcher. However the report theme is defined by frameworks of comparative law of APR countries. Based on the conference results the publication of scientific papers is planned. The conference materials, including multimedia presentations, will be published on a website of BSU <http://www.bsu.ru/university/departments/faculties/uf/13244/>. Authors of the best works will be assisted in the grants and the placement of their research papers in leading peer-reviewed publications.
